About Us

Our Story

DUDC কর্জে হাসানা was founded in 2010 with a simple yet powerful mission: to ensure that no student is deprived of education due to financial constraints. What started as a small initiative by a group of passionate educators has now grown into a nationwide movement supporting thousands of students each year.

Our organization is built on the Islamic principle of Qard-e-Hasana (beautiful loan), which encourages providing interest-free loans to those in need. We believe that education is a fundamental right, and financial limitations should never be a barrier to acquiring knowledge and skills.

Over the years, we have developed a sustainable model that connects donors with deserving students, creating a cycle of giving that empowers individuals and strengthens communities.

Our Mission

To provide interest-free educational loans to deserving students, enabling them to pursue their academic dreams without financial burden, and to foster a culture of giving and community support.

Our Vision

To create a society where every deserving student has access to quality education regardless of their financial background, and where graduates contribute back to support the next generation of learners.

Our Leadership Team

Dr. Ahmed Rahman

Founder & Chairman

Academician with 25+ years of experience in higher education and a passion for educational equity.

Fatima Begum

Executive Director

Former banker with expertise in microfinance and community development programs.
